

Appendix 2: Incident command assessment criteria – level 2

Level 2 &3 - Assessment criteria (EFSM2 – SC, GC, DAC and AC)

Information Gathering
Confirmation of previous actions
4	You clearly confirmed that the action taken to date was compliant with relevant legislation and protocols.
3	You confirmed the action taken to date was compliant with relevant legislation and protocols.
2	You delayed in confirming the action taken to date was compliant with relevant legislation and protocols.
1	You failed to confirm the action taken to date was compliant with relevant legislation and protocols.
Confirmation of hazards
4	You clearly confirmed the current hazards which had been identified, prior on your arrival.
3	You confirmed the current hazards which had been identified, prior to your arrival.
2	You were slow to confirm what current hazards had already been identified, prior to your arrival.
1	You failed to confirm what current hazards had already been identified, prior to your arrival.
Confirmation of risk assessments
4	You confirmed that an Appropriate Risk Assessment was carried out at the most appropriate time .
3	You confirmed that an Appropriate Risk Assessment was carried out.
2	You delayed in confirming if an Appropriate Risk Assessment was carried out.
1	You did not confirm if an Appropriate Risk Assessment was carried out at any time during the incident.
Confirmation of previous role assignments
4	You were prompt in confirming the previously assigned roles, which were assigned prior to your arrival.
3	You confirmed the previously assigned roles, which were assigned prior to your arrival.
2	You delayed in confirming the previously assigned roles, which were assigned prior to your arrival.
1	You did not confirm any of the previous assigned roles, which were assigned prior to your arrival.

Determine suitability and sufficiency of resources
4	You quickly and correctly determined the sufficiency and suitability of the resources already in attendance at the incident.
3	You correctly determined the sufficiency and suitability of the resources already in attendance at the incident.
2	You incorrectly determined the sufficiency and suitability of the resources already in attendance at the incident.
1	You did not determine the sufficiency and suitability of the resources already in attendance at the incident.
Determine involvement of other agencies
4	You quickly determined the involvement of other Agencies at the incident.
3	You determined the involvement of other Agencies at the incident.
2	You delayed in determining the involvement of any other Agency at the incident.
1	You failed to determine the involvement of any other Agency at the incident.
Information gathering
4	You obtained sufficient information from all available sources on incident progress, risks, deployment, resource availability and existing incident management.
3	You obtained sufficient information on the incident's progress, risks, deployment, resource availability and existing incident management.
2	You were slow or failed to obtain sufficient information on the incident's progress, risks, deployment, resource availability and existing incident management.
1	You did not gather any information regarding the incident's progress, risks, deployment, resource availability and existing incident management.
Incident Evaluation
Resource evaluation
4	You anticipated and correctly identified the likely future resource needs, considering the possibility of an escalation of the incident.
3	You anticipated the likely future resource needs, including the consideration of a possible escalation of incident.
2	You were slow to anticipate any future resource needs.
1	You failed to anticipate any future resource needs and did not consider the possible escalation of incident.

Risk evaluation
4	You clearly anticipated the Major risks to Health, Safety and Welfare, ensuring adequate and timely control measures were implemented.
3	You anticipated the risks to Health, Safety and Welfare and ensured adequate and timely control measures were implemented.
2	You were slow to anticipate the key risks to Health, Safety and Welfare and failed to ensure adequate and timely control measures were implemented.
1	You failed to anticipate the key risks to Health, Safety and Welfare and failed to ensure adequate and timely control measures were implemented.
Obtained professional advice to help evaluate
4	You were thorough in gaining technical / professional advice from suitable sources and used it to help support your decision making.
3	You obtained technical and professional advice from suitable sources to help support your decision making.
2	You were slow to obtain any technical or professional advice from sources, which may have supported your decision making.
1	You did not obtain any technical or professional advice from any source, which may have supported your decision making.
Evaluation of impact on the organisation and others
4	You evaluated and fully considered the implications of the incident on the organisation, the environment, the local community and other agencies roles and responsibilities
3	You evaluated the implications of the incident on the organisation, the environment, the local community and other agencies roles and responsibilities
2	You evaluated the implications on most of the interested parties , which were involved with the incident.
1	You failed to evaluate the implications of the incident on the organisation, the environment, the local community and other agencies roles and responsibilities
Objective Setting and Planning
Confirm priority actions and objectives
4	After taking over you were prompt and clear in confirming the objectives and priority actions for resolution of incident.
3	After taking over you confirmed the objectives and priority actions for resolution of incident.
2	You delayed in confirming the objectives and priority actions for resolution of incident.
1	You failed to confirm at any time, the objectives and priority actions for resolution of incident.

Action planning
4	You formulated a comprehensive / flexible action plan deploying the appropriate resources, which deal with all elements of the incident in a methodical way.
3	You formulated an action plan, deploying the appropriate resources , which deal with the major elements of the incident.
2	You formulated an action plan, which fails to deploy the appropriate resources , or to effectively deal with a key dimension .
1	You formulated an inappropriate action plan to deal with the incident.
Safe systems of work
4	You employed the most appropriate safe system of work, which is based upon full consideration of the identified risks of the incident.
3	You employed an appropriate safe system of work, which is based upon full consideration of the identified risks of the incident.
2	You employed inappropriate but safe systems of work.
1	You failed to employ a safe system of work.
Command and Control
Assuming command
4	You declared that you were assuming command at the appropriate time , having first gathered all the necessary information .
3	You assumed command at the appropriate time , having first gained some information .
2	You declared that you were assuming command without first gathering the appropriate information or at an inappropriate stage .
1	You failed to declare that you were assuming command.
Control of the incident
4	You established / asserted effective control of the incident and maintained it throughout the incident.
3	You maintained good control of the incident.
2	You failed to establish firm control of the Incident.
1	You failed to establish or lost control of the Incident.
Effective command
4	You quickly established effective command of all crews / Sectors , displaying leadership qualities ensuring that you were constantly seen as being in command .
3	You maintained good command of the crew throughout the incident.
2	You failed to establish firm command during the incident.
1	You failed to establish or lost command during the incident.

Delegating spans of control
4	You accurately assessed the required span of control and put in place an appropriate command structure in good time.
3	You considered span of control and assessed the need to limit/sectorise.
2	You considered the span of control but failed to limit/sectorise appropriately .
1	You failed to consider delegating the span of control.
Use of command support
4	You established and interacted with Command Support effectively, making full use of its resources .
3	You used Command Support effectively .
2	You failed to use Command Support effectively .
1	You failed to use Command Support.
Crisis management
4	You dealt with crisis situations efficiently in a calm controlled manner.
3	You managed crisis appropriately .
2	You were ineffective in managing a crisis situation.
1	You failed to manage crisis.
Communications
Communication with people
4	You established and maintained effective communication that is accurate, complete and confirmed with people using the correct methods of communication.
3	You established and maintained satisfactory communication with people.
2	You established but failed to maintain communication with people.
1	You failed to establish effective communication with people.
Transmitting tactical mode
4	You transmitted the Tactical Mode of Operation regularly and effectively to All personnel.
3	You transmitted the Tactical Mode of Operation to All personnel.
2	You failed to transmit the Tactical Mode of operation regularly to All Personnel.
1	You failed to transmit the Tactical Mode of operation to any Personnel.
Senior officer briefing
4	You carried out a clear, concise, comprehensive and effective senior officer briefing.
3	You carried out a satisfactory senior officer briefing.
2	You carried out a briefing of the senior officer, which lacked detail .
1	You failed to provide a senior officer briefing which was accurate .

Review
Update of tactical mode
4	You updated the Tactical Mode quickly and effectively .
3	You updated the Tactical Mode as required .
2	You failed to update the Tactical Mode as required .
1	You failed to update the Tactical Mode.
Review of risk assessment
4	You continually reviewed and modified the risk assessment and rapidly responded to changes in the nature and extent of the incident.
3	You reviewed and modified the risk assessment to respond to changes in the nature and extent of the incident.
2	You carried out an ineffective review of the Risk Assessment.
1	You failed to review the Risk Assessment.
Actively monitor the progress of activity against your plan
4	You continually monitored the progress of activity during the incident and compared and updated your plan where necessary.
3	You monitored the progress of activity during the incident and compared this against your plan.
2	You did not adequately monitor the progress of activity during the incident to compare against your plan.
1	You did not actively monitor the progress of activity during the incident against your plan.